

Model 2

$$w = \text{alph} * t$$

$$t_{\text{max}} = 100 / \text{alph}, dt = t_{\text{max}} / 8000$$

Results

We can see that the voltage becomes higher by a linear increase.

We measured the primary voltage with connected transformer and capacitor.

The voltage didn't become stable but a linear increase was also visible.